Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. is a United States limited company.
United Kingdom Registration No. FC18173, Branch No. BR2639.

NOTICE TO ALL SUCCESSFUL BIDDERS:

We use soft, PVC (Polyvinyl chloride), flips to ship auction lots in. We do not recommend these flips for long-term storage as PVC does damage coins over prolonged exposure. We recommend placing your coins in a safe type of flip (Mylar) for long-term storage purposes.

AUCTION TERMS

This is a mail bid auction conducted by Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG). Bidding in the auction constitutes acceptance of the following terms:

1. The property listed in this catalogue is offered for sale by CNG for itself and as agent for various owners and other consignors. We reserve the right to reject any bid, to determine the opening price, to set bidding increments, to vary the order of the auction, to reopen bidding in the case of a dispute, to withdraw any lot, to bid on behalf of CNG, to bid on behalf of the consignor, and to permit the consignor to bid on his own lots.

2. All lots are subject to a 10% Buyer's fee which will be added to the hammer price.

3. All coins are guaranteed genuine. Attribution, date, condition and other descriptions are the opinion of the cataloguer, and no warranty is expressed or implied. Please note that an auction sale is not an approval sale. Lots examined prior to the sale and lots purchased by floor bidders (including bidders executing commission bids on behalf of other parties) may not be returned for any reason except lack of authenticity. All claims of misdescription and all claims of return, except claims regarding authenticity, must be made within 5 days of receipt of material. Any claim of lack of authenticity must be made in writing by the original purchaser immediately after discovery that an item is not authentic, and upon making such a claim the original purchaser must immediately return the lot to CNG in the same condition as at the time of the auction. Estimates are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value.

4. Terms are for cash, with invoices being due and payable immediately upon receipt. Interest and collection charges of 2.0% per month, from the date of the auction, shall be payable on invoices not settled within 30 days of the sale date. Payment by check must be made in either US dollars ($) drawn on a US bank or British sterling (£) drawn on a British bank. All successful bidders outside North America and the United Kingdom will be invoiced an additional $15 fee for bank charges, but buyers may deduct this fee if payment is made as required above. Payment may be made by Visa, Mastercard or American Express; however, a 3.5% surcharge is made for payment by credit card.

5. Bidders not known to us must provide us with satisfactory credit references or pay a deposit as determined at CNG's discretion before bidding. Minors are not permitted to bid without written consent of a parent guaranteeing payment. CNG may require payment in full from any bidder prior to delivery of lots. Title does not pass until lots are paid in full. Upon receipt of lots, the buyer assumes full responsibility for loss or damage.

6. Estimates are in U.S. dollars ($US) and bids must be in even dollar ($) amounts. CNG will execute mail bids on behalf of mail bidders. Subject to reserves and opening prices, mail bids will be executed at one bidding increment (approximately 10%) over the next highest bid. Please note that bids below estimate are rarely reduced, but bids above estimate stand a good chance of being reduced. In the case of identical bids, the earliest bid wins. A mail bid has priority over an identical floor bid. Bid by lot number. No lots will be broken. Bidders are responsible for errors in bidding. Check your bid sheet carefully.

7. A word on Reserves. CNG reserves the right to place a reserve on any lot. However, no reserve will be higher than the estimate, and ordinarily lots are reserved at 60% of estimate.

8. Bidders personally guarantee payment for their successful bids, including bidders executing commission bids from other parties and bidders representing corporations or other entities. Buyers accepting commission bids from other parties do so at their own risk and remain responsible to CNG for full settlement under these Auction Terms.

9. In the event a successful bidder fails to make any payment when due, CNG reserves the right to resell the material, and the bidder agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the previously successful bid. CNG also reserves all rights that it would be entitled to under the Pennsylvania Uniform Commercial Code, including the right to offset any sums due from a successful bidder against any future consignment or purchase or monies or goods in possession of CNG.

10. Sales tax, postage, handling and insurance are the responsibility of the buyer and are added to all invoices where appropriate. Postage, handling and insurance for book lots will be invoiced separately from coin lots. On any tax not paid by the purchaser which should have been paid, even if not invoiced by CNG, the purchaser agrees to pay the same on demand together with any interest or penalty that may be assessed. It is the responsibility of the buyer to comply with foreign customs and other regulations.

11. Prices Realised are published after the sale and are mailed with CNG's next publication.

12. Bidders consent to waive any claim for incidental, consequential or exemplary damages arising from this auction. The sole remedy that any participant in the auction shall have for any claim or controversy arising out of the auction shall be a refund, without interest, of all or part of the purchase price paid by the participant.

13. All rights granted by CNG or otherwise available to bidders and purchasers, under these Auction Terms or otherwise, are personal and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by operation of law or otherwise. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred by these Auction Terms. Bidders acting as agents must disclose the agency in writing to CNG prior to the auction; otherwise rights are limited to the agent and are not transferable to the undisclosed principal.

14. Any dispute regarding this auction shall be governed by the laws of Pennsylvania and shall be adjudicated only by the Lancaster County Court of Common Pleas or the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and all bidders submit themselves to the personal jurisdiction of these courts for this purpose based on service by registered or certified mail. In any dispute regarding this auction, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable costs and attorney fees.

15. In the event of a dispute, the English version of these Auction Terms shall be definitive.

Bid Sheets must be received by September 24, 1997.

GOOD LUCK!

AUKTIONSBEDINGUNGEN

Dies ist eine Versteigerung von Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG) bei der nur schriftliche Gebote akzeptiert werden. Sie können daran persönlich teilnehmen oder Ihre Gebote schriftlich einreichen. Durch die Abgabe eines Gebotes erkennen Sie die nachstehenden Versteigerungsbedingungen an:

1. Die aufgeführten Lose werden von CNG auf eigene Rechnung, als Vertreter verschiedener Besitzer und Einlieferer versteigert. CNG behält sich das Recht Gebote zurückzuweisen, den Ruppreis zu bestimmen, die Steigerungsstufen festzulegen, die Reihenfolge der Lose zu verändern, bei Unklarheiten das Los neu aufzurufen, Lose von der Versteigerung zurückzuziehen, im Namen von CNG und der Einlieferer zu bieten, sowie den Einlieferer auf seine eigenen Lose bieten zu lassen.

2. Auf alle Lose wird ein Aufgeld von 10 % auf den Zuschlagspreis erhoben.

3. Die Echtheit aller Münzen wird garantiert. Alle Beschreibungen geben die persönliche Beurteilung des Verfassers wieder, es wird insoweit keine Gewähr geleistet. Bitte beachten Sie, daß eine Auktion Käufe zur Ansicht ausschließt. Lose, die vor dem Verkauf besichtigt wurden, und Lose, die von bei der Versteigerung anwesenden Bietern (einschließlich Bietern, die Gebote im Namen anderer Parteien auf Provisionsbasis abgeben) gekauft wurden, können aus keinem Grund zurückgegeben werden, ausgenommen bei mangelnder Echtheit. Alle Reklamationen, ausgenommen Ansprüche in Bezug auf mangelnde Echtheit, müssen innerhalb von fünf Tagen nach dem Erhalt der Ware vorgebracht werden. Ansprüche auf Grund mangelnder Echtheit müssen von dem ursprünglichen Käufer in schriftlicher Form sofort nach Kenntnis gestellt werden; und bei der Geltendmachung eines solchen Anspruchs muß der ursprüngliche Käufer die Ware sofort in dem gleichen Zustand an CNG zurückgeben, in dem sich die Ware zum Zeitpunkt der Auktion befand. Schätzwerte sind nur als Richtlinien gedacht und stellen keine verbindliche Erklärung über den Wert dar.

4. Die Bezahlung wird sofort nach Erhalt der Rechnung fällig. Auf Rechnungen, die nicht innerhalb von 30 Tagen nach dem Verkaufstag beglichen werden, werden vom Datum der Auktion an Zinsen und Inkassogebühren in Höhe von 2% pro Monat berechnet. Die Zahlung muß mit Scheck erfolgen, entweder mit einem auf US-Dollar (US-$) ausgestellten Scheck, der auf eine US-Bank gezogen ist, oder mit einem auf Pfund Sterling (£) ausgestellten Scheck, der auf eine britische Bank gezogen ist. Allen erfolgreichen Bietern außerhalb von Nordamerika und Großbritannien wird zusätzlich ein Betrag in Höhe von US-$15,- für Bankgebühren in Rechnung gestellt; die Käufer können jedoch diese Gebühr von ihrer Zahlung abziehen, wenn sie die Bezahlung auf die oben geforderte Weise vornehmen. Zahlungen können mit Visa, Mastercard oder American Express erfolgen; jedoch wird bei Bezahlung mit Kreditkarte ein Aufschlag in Höhe von 3,5% berechnet.

5. Bieter, die CNG nicht bekannt sind, müssen CNG eine zufriedenstellende Kreditreferenz zur Verfügung stellen oder ein Depot hinterlegen, dessen Höhe von CNG festgelegt wird, ehe sie Gebote abgeben können. Minderjährige dürfen ohne die schriftliche Zustimmung eines Elternteils, der die Zahlung garantiert, nicht bieten. CNG kann von jedem Käufer Vorauskasse verlangen. Die versteigerten Lose bleiben bis zur vollständigen Bezahlung aller Forderungen von CNG Eigentum der Verkäufer. Nach Erhalt der Lose übernehmen die Käufer die volle Verantwortung für Verluste oder Schäden.

6. Die Schätzungen sind in US-Dollar (US-$) und alle Gebote müssen auf gerade Dollarbeträge (US-$) lauten. CNG führt schriftliche Gebote im Namen der Bieter aus. Vorbehaltlich der Mindestgebote und Ruppreise werden schriftliche Gebote eine Steigerungsstufe (von etwa 10%) über dem nächsthöchsten Gebot während der Versteigerung zugeschlagen. Gebote unterhalb des Schätzwertes werden in der Regel nicht ermäßigt. Gebote über dem Schätzwert werden jedoch ermäßigt sofern dies möglich ist. Bei gleich hohen Geboten wird der Zuschlag dem zuerst abgegebenen Gebot erteilt. Ein schriftliches Gebot hat Vorrang vor einem, das während der Versteigerung abgegeben wird. Das Bieten erfolgt nach Losnummern. Die Lose werden nicht aufgeteilt. Die Bieter sind für Fehler beim Bieten selbst verantwortlich. Überprüfen Sie Ihren Gebotsbogen gründlich.

7. Eine Anmerkung zu Mindestgeboten (Limiten). CNG behält sich das Recht vor, für beliebige Lose ein Mindestgebot (Limit) festzulegen. Jedoch ist kein Mindestgebot (Limit) höher als der

8. Die Bieter haften persönlich für die Bezahlung ihrer erfolgreichen Gebote; hierin eingeschlossen sind die Bieter, die Gebote von anderen Parteien auf Provisionsbasis abgeben, und die Bieter, die juristische Personen oder andere Rechtsträger vertreten. Käufer, die für Gebote von anderen Parteien Provisionen erhalten, geben die Gebote auf ihr eigenes Risiko ab, und sie sind CNG gegenüber für die volle Begleichung gemäß diesen Auktionsbedingungen verantwortlich.

9. In dem Fall, daß ein erfolgreicher Bieter Zahlungsstermine versäumt, behält sich CNG das Recht vor, die Waren erneut zu verkaufen; der Bieter erklärt sich damit einverstanden, alle anfallenden Kosten eines solchen Verkaufs zu zahlen und auch für den Fehlbetrag zwischen dem Wiederverkaufspreis und dem Preis des vormals erfolgreichen Gebotes aufzukommen. CNG behält sich auch alle Rechte vor, die sich für CNG aus dem Handelsgesetzbuch für Pennsylvania, dem Pennsylvania Uniform Commercial Code, ergeben; hierin eingeschlossen ist das Recht, jedwede nach erfolgtem Zuschlag fällig gewordenen Beträge, gegen beliebige künftige Einlieferungen, Ankäufe, Gelder oder Güter, die sich im Besitz von CNG befinden, aufzurechnen.

10. Umsatzsteuer, Porto, Transportkosten und Versicherung fallen in den Verantwortungsbereich des Käufers und werden allen Rechnungen, falls zutreffend, hinzugerechnet. Porto, Transportkosten und Versicherung für Bücher werden getrennt von denen für Münzen in Rechnung gestellt. Der Käufer erklärt sich bereit, angefallene und nicht entrichtete Steuern auch dann, wenn sie von CNG nicht in Rechnung gestellt wurden auf Verlangen zusammen mit aufgelaufenen Zinsen, sowie eventuell auferlegte Strafen zu bezahlen. Es fällt in den Verantwortungsbereich des Käufers, die Zollbestimmungen und andere Regeln im Ausland zu erfüllen.

11. Die erzielten Preise werden nach dem Verkauf bekanntgegeben und werden zusammen mit der nächsten Veröffentlichung von CNG versandt.

12. Die Bieter verzichten, auf alle sich an dieser Auktion ergebenden Ansprüche hinsichtlich Schadenersatz für Aufwendungen, Schadenersatz für Folgeschäden oder einer über den verursachten Schaden hinausgehenden Entschädigung. Das einzige Recht, das einem Teilnehmer an der Auktion auf Grund eines auf die Auktion zurückgehenden Anspruches oder einer entsprechenden Streitfrage zusteht, besteht in einer zinslosen Rückvergütung des ganzen oder eines Teils des gezahlten Kaufpreises.

13. Alle Rechte, die Bietern oder Käufern von CNG gewährt werden oder ihnen anderweitig zur Verfügung stehen, und zwar gemäß diesen Auktionsbedingungen oder anderweitig, sind persönlicher Art und können nicht an eine andere Person oder einen Rechtsträger abgetreten oder übertragen werden, sei es durch gesetzlichen Rechtsübergang oder anderweitig. Keine dritte Partei kann sich auf Leistungen oder Rechte berufen, die durch diese Auktionsbedingungen gegeben werden. Bieter, die als Vertreter handeln, müssen diese Vertretung CNG vor der Auktion in schriftlicher Form offenlegen; andernfalls sind die Rechte auf den Vertreter beschränkt und sind nicht auf den nicht offengelegten Auftraggeber übertragbar.

14. Ein Rechtsstreit hinsichtlich dieser Auktion unterliegt des Gesetzen von Pennsylvania und kann nur von dem Lancaster County Court of Common Pleas oder dem U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania gerichtlich entschieden werden; und alle Bieter unterwerfen sich für diesen Zweck auf Grund einer Zustellung durch eingeschriebene Post den Staatshoheitsrechten dieser Gerichte. In einem Rechtsstreit hinsichtlich dieser Auktion ist die obsiegende Partei berechtigt, ihre angemessenen Kosten und Rechtsanwaltskosten erstattet zu bekommen.

15. Im Falle einer Streitfrage ist die englische Version dieser Auktionsbedingungen rechtskräftig.

Ihre schriftlichen Gebote müssen bis zum
24. September 1997 bei uns eingehen.

VIEL ERFOLG!

CONDITIONS DE VENTE AUX ENCHERES

Ceci est une vente aux enchères par correspondance organisée par Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG). Faire une offre à l'enchère signifie l'acceptation des conditions suivantes:

1. Les objets proposés dans ce catalogue sont mis en vente par CNG agissant pour son propre compte et en tant qu'agent représentant divers autres propriétaires. Nous nous réservons le droit de refuser une offre ou enchère, de décider de la mise à prix, de fixer les paliers de hausse des enchères, de modifier l'ordre dans lequel se déroule la vente aux enchères, de relancer les enchères en cas de désaccord, de retirer un lot quelconque, de faire une offre pour le compte de CNG, de faire une offre pour le compte du propriétaire et de permettre de faire des enchères sur ses propres lots.

2. Tous les lots sont sujets à une commission de 10 % à la charge de l'acquéreur, laquelle sera ajoutée au prix de vente.

3. Toutes les pièces de monnaie sont garanties authentiques. L'attribution, la date, l'état et autres qualificatifs sont l'opinion de l'auteur du catalogue sans que ceci implique de garantie expresse ou implicite. Veuillez noter qu'une vente aux enchères n'est pas une vente conditionnelle. Les lots inspectés avant la vente et les lots achetés par des enchérisseurs dans la salle (y compris des enchérisseurs agissant pour le compte d'autres personnes) ne peuvent en aucun cas être retournés excepté en cas de problème d'authenticité. Toute contestation concernant la description ainsi que toute intention de retourner une monnaie des pièces, (excepté dans les cas de problèmes d'authenticité), doivent être formulées dans les 5 jours qui suivent la réception de l'envoi. Toute contestation ayant trait à l'authenticité doit être faite par écrit par l'acquéreur initial immédiatement et, il a l'obligation dans les plus brefs délais de renvoyer le lot à CNG dans le même état qu'il l'a acquis. Les valeurs estimatives sont données à titre purement indicatif et ne sont pas une définition fixe de la valeur réelle.

4. Les conditions de la vente prévoient le paiement comptant, les factures étant échues et payables immédiatement dès leur réception. Des intérêts et frais de collecte s'élevant à 2% par mois à compter de la date de la vente aux enchères seront payables sur les factures qui ne sont pas réglées dans les 30 jours qui suivent la date de la vente. Le paiement par chèque doit se faire soit en dollars US ($) si le chèque est tiré sur une banque américaine, soit en livres sterling anglaises (£) s'il est tiré sur une banque britannique. Tous les acquéreurs domiciliés ailleurs qu'en Amérique du Nord ou au Royaume-Uni se verront facturer un supplément de 15$ pour frais bancaires mais ils peuvent déduire si le paiement est effectué de la manière indiquée ci-dessus. Le paiement peut s'effectuer avec les cartes Visa, Mastercard ou American Express; le règlement par carte de crédit donne lieu toutefois à une majoration de 3,50%.

5. Les enchérisseurs que nous ne connaissons pas doivent nous fournir des références de solvabilité satisfaisantes ou verser des arrhes selon accord avec CNG avant les enchères. Les mineurs ne sont pas autorisés à faire d'enchères sans l'autorisation écrite de l'un de leurs parents garantissant le paiement. CNG peut exiger le règlement intégral de la part d'un enchérisseur avant la livraison des lots. La propriété des lots ne se trouve transférée qu'une fois que les lots ont été payés intégralement. A la réception des lots, l'acquéreur assume l'entière responsabilité en cas de perte ou d'endommagement de ceux-ci.

6. Les valeurs estimatives sont données en dollars ($US) et les offres/enchères doivent être en montants entiers en dollars ($). CNG exécutera les offres/enchères soumises par correspondance pour le compte des enchérisseurs. A part dans le cas d'une réserve, les offres par correspondance seront exécutées à approximativement 10% de plus que l'enchère la plus proche. Veuillez noter que les enchères inférieures aux valeurs estimatives sont rarement réduites mais que celles au-dessus de ces valeurs ont de fortes chances d'être réduites. En cas d'offres identiques, la première l'emporte. Une offre par correspondance l'emporte sur une offre identique dans la salle. Faites vos offres en écrivant le numéro du lot. Les lots ne seront pas divisés. Les enchérisseurs assumeront la responsabilité des erreurs sur leur bulletin d'enchère, c'est pourquoi il est recommandé de tout contrôler avec soin.

7. Quelques mots sur les prix minimum. CNG se réserve le droit de fixer un prix minimum pour n'importe quel lot. Aucune réserve ne sera toutefois supérieure à la valeur estimative et les lots se voient généralement attribuer un prix minimum correspondant à 60% de la valeur estimative.

8. Les enchérisseurs garantissent personnellement le paiement de leurs offres en cas d'attribution du lot, même s'ils agissent pour le compte d'un tiers. Les acquéreurs se chargeant d'offres/enchères à la commission venant d'autres personnes le font à leurs propres risques et restent responsables vis-à-vis de CNG du règlement intégral selon les présentes Conditions de Vente aux Enchères.

9. Au cas où un acquéreur omet d'effectuer un paiement lorsque celui-ci est échu, CNG se réserve le droit de revendre le lot et l'acquéreur accepte de payer les frais raisonnables d'une telle vente et aussi de payer la différence entre le prix de la nouvelle vente et celui de l'enchère précédemment acceptée. CNG se réserve aussi tous les droits dont l'elle peut se prévaloir en vertu du Code Commercial Uniforme de Pennsylvanie, notamment le droit de déduire les sommes dues par un acquéreur sur un envoi futur ou sur une acquisition future ou sur des sommes d'argent ou marchandises étant en la possession de CNG.

10. La taxe sur les ventes, les frais postaux, la manutention et l'assurance sont la responsabilité de l'acquéreur et sont ajoutés à toutes les factures le cas échéant. Les frais postaux, de manutention et d'assurance pour des lots de livres seront facturés séparément des lots de pièces de monnaie. Dans le cas de toute taxe n'étant pas payée par l'acquéreur mais qui aurait dû être payée, même si elle n'a pas été facturée par CNG, l'acquéreur s'engage à régler le montant de celle-ci ainsi que les intérêts ou la pénalité étant imposés le cas échéant. Il incombe à l'acquéreur d'assurer l'observation de la réglementation douanière étrangère et autres règlements.

11. Les Prix Réalisés sont publiés après la vente et sont envoyés par la poste avec la publication suivante de CNG.

12. Les enchérisseurs acceptent de renoncer à toute revendication de dommages et intérêts en cas de dommage cause par la vente aux enchères CNG. Le seul recours qu'un participant à la vente aux enchères aura à l'issue d'une réclamation ou d'un différend sera un remboursement sans intérêts, de la totalité ou d'une partie du prix d'achat payé par le participant.

13. Tous les droits accordés par CNG ou dont les enchérisseurs et acquéreurs peuvent autrement se prévaloir leur sont personnels et ne peuvent pas être cédés ni transférés à une autre personne physique ou morale, que ce soit du fait de l'intervention de la loi ou autrement. Aucune tierce personne ne peut s'appuyer sur un avantage ou droit conféré par les présentes Conditions de Vente aux Enchères. Les enchérisseurs agissant en tant qu'intermédiaires doivent divulguer leur mandat d'agence par écrit à CNG avant la vente aux enchères; autrement les droits seraient exclusifs à l'agent et ne seraient pas cessibles au donneur d'ordre qu'il représente.

14. Tout différend concernant la présente vente aux enchères sera régi par les lois de Pennsylvanie et sera tranché par la "Cour des Plaids Communs" (Court of Common Pleas) du Comté de Lancaster (Lancaster County) ou le Tribunal de District Fédéral (U.S. District Court) du District Oriental de Pennsylvanie et tous les enchérisseurs se soumettent à la juridiction personnelle de ces tribunaux, basée à cette fin sur la signification par courrier recommandé ou certifié. Dans tout litige concernant la présente vente aux enchères, la partie gagnante aura le droit de recouvrer ses frais d'avocat et coûts raisonnables.

15. En cas de litige, la version en anglais des présentes Conditions de Vente aux Enchères fera foi.

Les commissions doivent nous parvenir avant le 24 Septembre 1997.

BONNE CHANCE!

CONDIZIONI D'ASTA

L'asta è una per corrispondenza bandita da Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG). La presentazione di offerte all'asta comporta l'accettazione delle seguenti condizioni:

1. I lotti elencati in questo catalogo sono posti in vendita sia da CNG per proprio conto sia come agente di altri conferenti. CNG si riserva il diritto di rifiutare un'offerta, di determinare il prezzo d'apertura, di fissare gli incrementi di offerte, di variare l'ordine di svolgimento dell'asta, di riaprire la licitazione in caso di controversia, di ritirare un lotto, di fare offerte per conto di CNG stesso o di un affidatario e di permettere a un conferente di fare offerte per i propri lotti.
2. Tutti i lotti sono soggetti ad una commissione del 10 % che sarà aggiunta al prezzo di aggiudicazione.
3. Tutte le monete sono garantite autentiche. L'attribuzione, la data, le condizioni ed eventuali altre descrizioni sono opinioni del compilatore del catalogo nei confronti delle quali non si danno garanzie espresse o tacite. Va ricordato che una vendita all'asta non è una vendita con riserva di gradimento. I lotti esaminati prima dell'asta e i lotti acquistati dagli offerenti in sala (inclusi gli offerenti che fanno offerte per conto di terzi) non possono essere restituiti indipendentemente dalla ragione salvo nel caso di non autenticità. Tutte le rivendicazioni di descrizione inesatta e tutte le richieste di restituzione devono pervenire entro 5 giorni dal ricevimento del materiale. Le rivendicazioni di non autenticità devono essere inoltrate per iscritto dall'acquirente originale immediatamente dopo la scoperta dell'eventuale non autenticità e contemporaneamente l'acquirente deve restituire il lotto a CNG nelle stesse condizioni del momento dell'asta. Le stime s'intendono a puro titolo di orientamento e non sono espressioni di un'opinione di valore.
4. Le vendite sono per contanti con saldo delle fatture all'atto del ricevimento. Le fatture non saldate entro 30 giorni dalla data della vendita sono gravate del 2% a titolo di interesse ed addebito di riscossione a partire dalla data dell'asta. I pagamenti con assegno devono essere in dollari USA ($) su una banca americana o in sterline inglesi (£) su una banca britannica. A tutti gli aggiudicatari al di fuori dell'America del Nord e del Regno Unito vengono fatturati ulteriori $15 per competenze bancarie, somma che può essere dedotta se il pagamento è effettuato come sopra indicato. I pagamenti possono essere effettuati con carta di credito Visa, Mastercard o American Express essi sono in tal caso gravati di un 3,5% aggiuntivo.
5. Gli offerenti non noti a CNG devono fornire referenze di credito o versare una cauzione fissata a discrezione di CNG prima dell'apertura dell'asta. I minori di età non possono fare offerte senza il consenso scritto di un genitore che garantisca il pagamento. CNG può richiedere il pagamento in toto da un offerente prima della consegna dei lotti. Il diritto di proprietà non è trasmesso fintanto che i lotti non sono interamente saldati. Ad avvenuta consegna dei lotti l'acquirente assume piena responsabilità per le eventuali perdite o danni.
6. Le stime sono in dollari USA ($US) e le offerte devono essere in dollari o mettendo l'indicazione dei centesimi ($). CNG accetta offerte per corrispondenza. Le offerte per corrispondenza saranno eseguite con un incremento di circa il 10% sull'offerta più alta, prezzi minimi di base e prezzi di apertura permettendo. Va ricordato che le offerte al di sotto delle stime hanno raramente successo ma quelle sopra le stime hanno buona probabilità di aver successo. In caso di offerte identiche ha la preferenza quella pervenuta per prima. Un'offerta per corrispondenza gode di priorità su una identica in sala. Le offerte s'intendono per numero di lotto. Nessun lotto può essere suddiviso. Gli offerenti sono responsabili degli errori nelle offerte. Si prega di controllare attentamente il foglio offerte.
7. Per quanto riguarda i prezzi minimi di base, CNG si riserva il diritto di fissare un prezzo minimo per qualsiasi lotto, nessun prezzo minimo è superiore alla stima e generalmente è il 60% della stima.
8. Gli offerenti garantiscono personalmente il saldo delle offerte vincenti, inclusi gli offerenti che fanno offerte per conto di terzi e quelli che rappresentano associazioni o altri enti. Gli acquirenti che accettano di fare offerte per conto di terzi lo fanno a loro rischio e rimangono responsabili verso CNG per il saldo totale ai sensi delle presenti condizioni d'asta.
9. Se un acquirente non effettua un pagamento quando dovuto CNG si riserva il diritto di rivendere il o i lotti e l'offerente s'impegna a far fronte al costo ragionevole di detta vendita ed a corrispondere l'eventuale differenza tra il prezzo di rivendita e il precedente prezzo di aggiudicazione. CNG si riserva inoltre tutti i diritti che gli spettano ai sensi del Codice Commerciale Uniformato della Pennsylvania, incluso il diritto di compensare una somma dovuta da un acquirente con futuri conferimenti o acquisti o denaro o merci in possesso del CNG.
10. Le imposte sulle vendite, le spese postali, i costi di amministrazione e l'assicurazione sono a carico dell'acquirente e sono aggiunte come appropriato a tutte le fatture. Le spese postali, i costi di amministrazione e l'assicurazione per lotti di libri sono fatturati separatamente dai lotti di monete. Nel caso di un'imposta o tassa dovuta e non corrisposta dall'acquirente, anche se non fatturata da CNG, l'acquirente si impegna a corrispondere la sua richiesta unitamente agli eventuali interessi o penalità che possano derivare. E' responsabilità dell'acquirente rispettare le norme doganali o altri regolamenti vigenti all'estero.
11. I prezzi realizzati sono pubblicati dopo l'asta e sono comunicati per posta con il successivo catalogo CNG.
12. Gli acquirenti accettano di rinunciare a rivendicazioni per il rimborso di danni indiretti o di risarcimenti esemplari sorti in relazione all'asta. L'unica riparazione alla quale un partecipante all'asta ha diritto a fronte di una rivendicazione o controversia in relazione all'asta sarà il rimborso, senza interesse, di tutto o parte del prezzo di acquisto da esso versato.
13. Tutti i diritti garantiti da CNG o comunque a disposizione degli offerenti e degli acquirenti in base a queste condizioni d'asta o diversamente sono personali e non possono essere concessi o trasferiti a terzi, persone fisiche o giuridiche, sia in base a leggi che in altro modo. Nessun terzo può contare su benefici o diritti conferiti dalle presenti condizioni d'asta. Gli offerenti che fungono da agenti sono tenuti a informare per iscritto CNG prima dell'asta; in caso contrario i diritti sono limitati all'agente e non sono trasferibili al rappresentato non annunciato.
14. A rare signed tetradrachm of Lysimachos. With most magistrates represented by letters or monograms, the use of two partial names on this coin (Menodoros or Menodotos and Sosithos or Sosion) might suggest that they are intended to be artists' signatures.

The horse springing from a rock represents the springs around Pagasae, the port of Pherai. παρα is Doric for πηγη—spring, and thus is depicted as a horse, although not a true Pegasus. P.R. Franke has suggested these are early issues of the Thessalian League (AA 1, 1970, pp. 85-93).

The attribution to this mint is based solely on stylistic similarities with other signed issues from Leukas, although Leukas never used the lyre symbol. The lyre was used at both Apollonia, Anaktoron and Argos Amphiloichikon, but the coin stylistically is very different to the coins of these cities.

Thebes was the principal city of Boeotia and the leader of the Boeotian League, a confederation of cities. This association is represented by the uniformity of design their coins display. On the obverse is the Boeotian shield, recognizable by its distinctive shape. Initially the individual issuers identified themselves. However, in the early 5th to early 4th centuries BC, issues are usually in the name of Thebes alone or that of the league. After 371 BC the legend is usually a personal name. The abbreviated names appearing on the reverse of this type of coin are those of members of the επιμελεια (inspectors of weights and measures), a part of the central council of the Boeotian League responsible for supervising the mint.

ΔΑΜΩ may refer to Damokleidas. He was a friend of Pelopidas, a prominent Theban exile. In 382 BC Leontiades, a magistrate of Thebes, invited a group of Spartan soldiers passing by to occupy the city. He then proceeded to take control and imprisoned or killed his opponents. In 379 BC Pelopidas led a group of seven men to Thebes in a plot to regain the city. The seven disguised themselves as women and Leontiades' secretary, an accomplice, introduced them at a party the magistrate was having for his followers. The surprised and drunken men were quickly dealt with.

Athens produced a steady supply of tetradrachms from the early fifth century BC to the conquest of the city by Demetrios Poliorketes in 294 BC. The 'owls' popularity as an international trade currency led to an extreme conservatism of style which, while allowing its ready acceptance over most of the ancient world, froze its design in the past.

When Athens entered a period of prosperity in the early 2nd century BC, it again struck tetradrachms in quantity. Although keeping the same basic design, the 'New Style' tetradrachm drastically revamped the details. On the obverse the archaizing head of Athena was replaced with an ornate adaptation of the Athena Parthenos of Pheidias. On the reverse the owl now stood on an amphora surrounded by a wreath. Also included were magistrates' names, symbols, and even the month in which it was struck.

433. Athens. Circa 137/136 BC. AR New Style Tetradrachm (16.82 gm). Helmeted head of Athena / Owl standing right on amphora; Nike driving quadriga to right, Γ on amphora, ME below, magistrates MIKI, ΘΕΟΦΡΑ; all within wreath. Thompson 317. Near EF. ($400)

This coin illustrates the difficulties in the chronology of the new style tetradrachm. Thompson associates the magistrate Mikion with inscriptions from Athens recording a victor of that name in the Panathenaic games, dated to 182 BC and 178 BC by Ferguson and Kirchner. The Nike would commemorate that victory. Her high chronology date of 169/168 BC fits with this dating, but the lower chronology proposed by Mørkholm leaves a 41 year gap between the latest inscription and coin.

434. Athens. Circa 136/135 BC. AR New Style Tetradrachm (16.82 gm). Helmeted head of Athena right / Owl standing right on amphora; club, lion's skin and bow in case left, Δ on amphora, HP below; all within wreath. Thompson 332d (same obverse die). Near EF. ($400)

The prytanis was the civil magistrate, chosen annually, responsible for civic administration. His name (eponym) would appear on all official documents for that year, coins included. Although it is possible that Prytanis could be a personal name, it is more likely to refer to the office itself. One hypothesis could be that an official died before the completion of his term of office, and coins were struck anonymously for the duration of the year, presumably because it was too short a time to appoint a replacement.

Extremely Rare Mylasa Tetradrachm

583. Mylasa. Circa 3rd Century BC. AR Tetradrachm (13.34 gm). Zeus Labraundos standing right, holding double axe (labrys) and lotus-tipped sceptre / MYΛΑΣΕΩ[N] ΛΕΩΝ, Zeus Osogoa standing right holding sceptre and eagle, monogram before. Akarca—; cf. Thompson, ANSMN 12, 16 (different magistrate). Extremely rare and apparently unpublished with this magistrate. ($3000)

Mylasa was the major inland city of Caria and the site of two famous temples to Zeus. The satrap Hekatommos made it his capitol. Mausollos moved the seat of government to Halikarnassos in circa 367 BC where it remained until the city was captured by Alexander the Great in 334 BC. According to Margaret Thompson, who dates these coins to the late 4th to 3rd centuries BC, they may represent an attempt by Mylasa to regain its former pre-eminence.

Price, "The Syria 1989 Hoard", in Essays Carson/Jenkins, 7; Dewing 2715. Near VF, flat strike with original patina. ($300)

Babelon had attributed this series to Evagoras II, king of Salamis on Cyprus, while Price leaves it as an uncertain Persian satrap. One possible source might be the satrap Memnon (336-333 BC), originally the governor of Lydia, and after the defeat of the Persians at the Granicus, the supreme commander of Persian forces in the west. Memnon came to the assistance of Rhoontopates of Caria, but after the fall of Halikarnassos conceived the bold plan of carrying the war to Greece itself, where the Spartans and other Greeks, chafing under Macedonian rule, offered potential allies. Darius provided him with the funds to equip a fleet and mercenary army, but after capturing Chios and part of Lesbos, Memnon died of illness before he could reduce Mytilene, a rear base necessary to support his invasion fleet. The Persian king on these tetradrachms might represent Memnon's lost capital at Sardis (the mint for Persian darics and sigloi in the west) as well as the treasure provided by Darius to support his operations against Alexander.

Quite an unusual specimen with what appears to be a second, off-center, impression on the obverse above the head, although the two strikes overlap with no softening of either strike, and no signs of a second strike on the reverse. Ex Henry Platt Hall Collection, Part I (Glendining's, 19 July 1950), lot 642. The identification of the conjoined heads on the obverse of this coin remains uncertain. They have been variously identified as Octavian and Agrippa, Octavian and M. Aemilius Lepidus, and Octavian and Caesar. RPC states that "the portraits are completely unlike those of Octavian and.....are probably those of municipal officials." In the case of provincial coinage, it is difficult to use style as a criterion in identification as they were often either the work of inferior engravers or engravers without access to the Imperial imago, but without any epigraphic evidence the exact identity of these individuals will have to remain uncertain.

This "adventus" type can be dated to 213-214, when the Roman army was moving through Thrace and Macedonia on its way to confront the Parthians, and Caracalla was indulging his fantasy of being a heroic conqueror of the same mold as his model, Alexander the Great. Caracalla's increasingly erratic behavior in the course of this grand procession would eventually lead his officers, under Macrinus, to assassinate him.

Several ancient authors, including Pliny, preserve a legend of Ephesos being founded by Amazons, the famous women warriors of antiquity. On this coin the Amazon has taken on the aspect of Isis Pharia, patron of sea travellers. It appears to be the only coin type that depicts this legend, and the Paris piece is the only specimen published in the major collections.

The attribution of this coin is uncertain, but the style is very Augustan. If it is indeed a coin of Augustus, the fact that the head is laureate and the flatness of the neck truncation would indicate that this coin was struck late in the reign.

His patron Athena stands at his side, and to assist his conquest, positions her shield in such a manner that Perseus can see Medusa to slay her without looking directly upon her and thereby turning to stone.

Antioch was the principal mint for the Seleucid kings, and after Pompey annexed Syria, the Romans took over the mint. One of the main denominations of Syria was the tetradrachm of Antioch (the other being the shekel of Tyre). They are dated on the reverse by a variety of eras, the most common for both silver and bronze being the Caesarian era (year 1 = 49/48 BC). Other dating methods were the Actian era (year 1 = 32/31 BC) used by Augustus and Tiberius, and the use of regnal years by various emperors. Some coins have dates in two eras. About 60 AD production of the shekel of Tyre ceased and the 'eagle' tetradrachm of Antioch started to be struck in large quantities to replace it. This would be the standard design for the next two centuries.

This coin is apparently an unpublished type for the Herakleopolites nome. The normal reverse type depicts Herakles-Harpokrates whereas this type depicts Athena. It is possible that the die was intended for another nome and then mistakenly engraved with the ethnic for the Herakleopolites nome (there are not any signs of re-engraving around the legend, even under high magnification). The reverse is also double-struck and off-center which hinders an absolute identification.

ROMAN REPUBLICAN

Classical Numismatic Group is pleased to present the Goodman Collection of struck Roman Republican Bronzes. Assembled over the last 15 years or so, The Goodman Collection is the most comprehensive collection of struck Republican bronzes to be offered at public sale this century, and is only surpassed by the Borghesi Collection offered in 1881. The Collection will be sold in four parts: Part 1, September 1997 (this sale); Part 2, December 1997; Part 3, March 1998; and Part 4, September 1998.

The entire spectrum of Republican bronze coinage is represented in the Goodman Collection; from the earliest cast issues of Ramo Secco, Aes Signatum and Aes Grave to the final issues of Pompey and Julius Caesar 250 years later. The highlights are numerous, but just to whet your appetite here are a few: one of the finest known pieces of Aes Signatum, an As of Sextus Julius Caesar, triens issues of C. Renius and Cn. Domitius Ahenobarbus, an uncia of L. Trebanus, an Etrurian mint uncia and semuncia (Crawford 106/9 and 106/10), a Sardinian mint As (Crawford 64/2) and so on. If you collect struck Republican bronzes, you will have a feast with this collection.

While not as complete as the bronze collection, the Goodman Collection of silver and gold issues is also quite impressive including both rare specimens and high grade specimens. Highlights will include; Sicilian mint quadrigati, a nearly complete run of anonymous issues with symbols, two 20 As gold pieces, an anonymous gold half-stater, one of the finest known Mars/Horsehead didrachms (ex Pozzi Collection), a nice EF denarius of P. Cornelius Lentulus Marcellinus, etc.....

We could go on and on listing highlights, but at this point you will have to wait for the catalogues. Over the next year we will be offering everything from superb, patinated $25,000 rarities to worn common issues. There will be something for everyone. If you already collect Republican bronze and silver coins, we hope you enjoy the sales and can find many nice pieces to add to your collection. For the rest of you, if you are tired of your current collecting themes or you really want something challenging to collect, consider Republican bronzes. No other area in the field of Roman numismatics is as academically oriented or as challenging. The field is ripe for exploration and many new discoveries are waiting to be made. Anyone can put together a set of 12 Caesar denarii, but just try finding an uncia of Pub. Sulla! Are you up to the challenge?

All proceeds from the sale of the Goodman Collection will be donated to charity.

Curious 'LEG XII ANTIQVAE' Denarius

1748. MARK ANTONY. 32-31 BC. AR Legionary Denarius (3.38 gm). ANT AVG III VIR R P C, praetorian galley right / LEG XII ANTIQVAE, aquila between two standards. Crawford 544/9; Sydenham 1231; BMCRR 222; RSC 40. Near EF, banker's mark on obverse. ($750)

This interesting coin shows evidence of an error made by the die engraver. It appears he began to engrave the inscription 'LEG XII' in the field between the standards, and when noticing his error, attempted to remove the legend by filling in the punches in the die. As the letters 'LEG' can still be made out, he was not very successful.

1773. AUGUSTUS. 27 BC-14 AD. AR Denarius (3.67 gm). P. Petronius Turpillianus, moneyer. Struck 19 BC. Bare head of Augustus right / Tarpeia standing facing, raising both hands, half-buried by shields. RIC I 299; BMCRE 29; RSC 494. Toned, good Fine. ($300)

As a subplot of the myth of the rape of the Sabine women, Tarpeia was a Vestal Virgin that betrayed the city of Rome to the Sabines when they were attempting to rescue their wives and daughters. The price for her betrayal was what the Sabine soldiers wore on their left arms, meaning their gold bracelets. The Sabines were offended by Tarpeia's reprehensible greed and treason, and took her price literally. She met her death under the crushing weight of the soldiers' shields.

In a recent article on astrological symbolism on coins (see "Tarpeia and the Omina Lunae" in The Celator, vol. 7, no. 8 (August 1993), pp. 36ff), Michael Molnar suggests that the star and crescent motif depicted on the reverse of this coin represents the lunar occultation with Jupiter in 27 BC, a beneficent omen to the Romans, and it signifies the acceptance at that time of the imperium by Augustus.

In an attempt to meet the needs of local demand, Claudius' aes coinage was heavily imitated throughout the provinces. Because many of the die engravers making these imitations were highly skilled artisans, style is most often the only key to distinguishing between an imitative and an imperial issue. The portrait and letter styles of this imitation, as well as the centering holes on obverse and reverse, suggest it as being either eastern or Balkan in origin.

Rare Balkan Mint Nero Sestertius

Recent scholarship suggests that this rare issue of aes coinage with Latin legends was struck at Perinthus. The style is quite distinct from the two western issues of Rome and Lugdunum, and there is nothing in common with the Latin issues of Antioch or Corinth. Provenance, when known, is almost always in the northwest Balkan area. In addition, the coins are frequently encountered countermarked with Galban stamps (ΓΑΑ ΚΑΙ and ΓΑΑΒΑ) that were used to countermark provincial Perinthian issues.

According to Mac Dowall, this very rare countermark was applied locally shortly after the death of Nero in one of the Upper Danubian provinces, probably Pannonia, by Legio X Gemina stationed at Carnuntum. The countermark appears almost exclusively on aes of Nero from the mint at Lugdunum, and all of the published specimens have the countermark applied on the obverse in such a way so as not to obscure the features of the portrait - perhaps expressing loyalty to the imperial side during the Civil War of 68-70.

The legend on the reverse of this sestertius refers to Nerva's ending the practice of 'false accusation' used to collect the Jewish tax. Under Domitian, the collection of this tax was harshly enforced. Those who appeared to follow Jewish customs but did not acknowledge being Jews were prosecuted or condemned for godlessness. Nerva did not repeal the tax but limited the abuses in collecting it.

Under Trajan and Hadrian several series of bronze quadrantes were struck in the name of the imperial mines in Noricum, Dalmatia, Pannonia and Moesia (Dardania). These operations supplied metal for the mint at Rome, and perhaps were the sites of workshops to produce coinage for local circulation or as donatives. Others theorize that these pieces were struck at Rome itself, and served some unidentified function, much as the contemporary "nome" coinage struck at Alexandria in Egypt. Whatever the circumstances, these pieces saw limited use, and, except for one rare type struck by Marcus Aurelius, were not issued at any other period.

In July of 118 AD, Hadrian made his first appearance in Rome as emperor to celebrate a Parthian triumph in the name of Trajan. He was quickly called away to Moesia to subdue the Sarmatians and Roxolani. While away, four high ranking senators, Lucius Quietus, Cornelius Palma, L. Publius Celsus and C. Avidius were executed by the Senate for an alleged conspiracy against Hadrian, despite a promise by Hadrian not to execute members of the Senate. To calm a suspicious public opinion, Hadrian held a week long gladiatorial show, granted an extra public largess and as this coin advertises, relinquished the public debt to the state equalling 900 million sestertii. This event culminated in an elaborate ceremony held in the Forum of Trajan where all records of these debts were set ablaze.

A Nice Offering of Pertinax Denarii

Pertinax had a very remarkable and distinguished career. His father was a former slave who upon freedom became a successful wool merchant. With his wealth, he was able to have his son educated and Pertinax became a teacher. In 161, he left his teaching position, opting instead for a military career and greater pay. Once there, he quickly distinguished himself and was rapidly promoted from commander of a cohort to military tribune, then to consul, and eventually to governor of several provinces, including Upper and Lower Moesia, Dacia, Syria and Africa. In 189, Commodus appointed him urban prefect of Rome, and from this position he was able to seize control of the Empire upon the death of Commodus on the last day of December, 192 AD. Unfortunately, Pertinax attempted to reform the government and military too quickly, and was assassinated by disgruntled praetorians on 28 March 193, after a reign of only 87 days.

Ex Seaby Coin and Medal Bulletin (November 1972), A1342 and pl. 91.

The reverse motif depicted here commemorates the celebration of games that were held with the return of the Emperor to Rome in 202. Septimius was away from the city from 197-202, and his return was an intensely joyous occasion for the Roman people. During the festivals that followed, a ship with collapsible sides was constructed in the arena. When the sides were lowered, a bevy of rare and interesting animals scattered forth to be butchered for the amusement of the spectators.

Shortly before Septimius' death at Eboracum (York) on 4 February 211, an issue of coins was minted for Septimius, Caracalla and Geta celebrating the Roman successes over the native Picts and Scots in northern Britain. After Septimius died, his sons broke off further operations in the province and, leaving the task unfinished, returned to Rome. See lots 2117 and 2128 for related coins of Caracalla from the same issue.

A Final Alexandrian Mint Severan Denarius Apparently Unpublished

2089. SEPTIMIUS SEVERUS. 193-211 AD. AR Denarius (2.46 gm). Struck circa 194 AD. Alexandria mint. Laureate head right / TR P III[I] IMP II COS II, Virtus standing right, holding spear and leaning on shield. RIC IV—; BMCRE—; cf. Bickford-Smith, "The Imperial Mints in the East for Septimius Severus" in Revista Italiana 1994/95, pl. 1, 7 (same obverse die); RSC—. VF. Apparently unpublished variety with legend ending COS II. ($500)

The dating on this coin TRP IIII IMP II COS II is completely non-sensical, a fact not uncommon on eastern mint denarii. Septimius was acclaimed imperator for the second time in late 193, and again for the third time in January 194. He did not receive the tribunicia potestas for the fourth time until 10 December 195. The discrepancy in the legend is apparently a die engraver's error. Nonetheless, the coin is still a totally unpublished variety for Septimius.

In RIC IV, Mattingly incorrectly attributes the 'Divus' types struck under Decius to the mint at Milan. In his article "Reattribution of the Milan Coins of Trajan Decius to the Rome Mint", NumChron 1972, K.J.J. Elks reattributes via a study of die-linkage this series as well as the rest of the Mattingly's Milan mint coinage of Decius to the Rome mint.

The Portraiture of Caracalla

The portraiture of Caracalla shows him growing up during his 22 years in the public eye. Made Caesar at the age of 8, his first coins depict a round cheeked child (an example is lot 2106). Made Augustus at 10, he still appears quite young (lot 2110). Lot 2107 struck in 205 AD shows him as a teenager. At the time of his joint reign with Severus and Geta his bearded portrait is that of an adult (lot 2117). During his sole reign he changed his image from that of a youthful man to an experienced, determined leader (lot 2126). The coins of Geta, his brother and temporary co-emperor, received similar treatment from childhood up to Geta's assassination at 22. Caracalla's coinage comes near the end of the period of great Roman portraiture. The highly realistic (almost photographic in some instances) treatment of the subject would soon give way to less accurate, more symbolic images. The fabric of the coins also no longer allowed for the near 3-D portraits of the past. Roman celators were still capable of fine work, but in an empire beset with many serious problems future emperors would choose images that presented themselves as they wanted to be seen. (For further reading see "Classicism to Abstraction: Roman Coin Portraiture in the Third Century" by Martin Beckmann in The Picus 1993).

Rare Last Issue of Caracalla

2126. CARACALLA. 198-217 AD. AR Denarius (3.15 gm). Struck January-April 217 AD. ANTONINVS PIVS AVG GERM, laureate head right / VIC PART P M TR P XX COS IIII P P, Caracalla standing left, holding globe and sceptre, being crowned by Victory who stands behind him; small captive at Caracalla's feet. RIC IV 299e; BMCRE 200 note; RSC 655. Toned, near EF. Rare type. ($250)

In early 216 AD, Caracalla assembled a substantial force (at least 8 legions) along the Syrian frontier, for what would prove to be Caracalla's final triumph. The Parthian empire had been engaged in a civil war since 213, with Vologases V in control of half the empire and Artabanus V in control of the other half. Caracalla took advantage of this division and sided with Artabanus, even proposing marriage with Artabanus' daughter to cement the alliance. The plan went awry though, and Caracalla marched against an unprepared Artabanus. After ravaging the countryside east of the Tigris unhindered, Caracalla returned to Edessa to spend the winter. It is this "victory" that is celebrated on this coin. Caracalla no doubt would also have assumed the title Parthicus and celebrated a 4th acclamation of imperator had his life not been suddenly cut short on April 8, 217 AD.

Inexpensive Pacatian Antoninianus

2254. PACATIAN. Circa 248-249 AD. AR Antoninianus (4.12 gm). Viminacium mint. Radiate, draped and cuirassed bust right / Pax standing left, holding olive-branch and transverse sceptre. RIC V pt. 2, 5; RSC 6. Fine, heavy porosity. ($2500)

Very little is known of the usurper Tiberius Claudius Marinus Pacatianus, who seized power in Upper Moesia in 248 AD. It is believed that Pacatian was killed by his own troops shortly after he seized control.

Viminacium is the most probable sight for Pacatian's mint, and a comparison with the local aes coinage shows remarkable similarity of style. Seven different reverses were used on the antoniniani of Pacatian — Concordia, Felicitas, Fides, Fortuna, Pax, Roma and Victory — all common themes in the third century. Such a variety of reverse types would suggest a large issue of coins, though today all coins of Pacatian are very rare, with fewer than 100 coins of all varieties known.

The Coinage of Postumus

Postumus, the governor of Lower Germany, revolted from Gallienus in the autumn of 260 and created the Gallic empire, which was to survive as a separate state for fifteen years. The breakaway empire was initially composed of the three Gallic provinces, Lugdunensis, Aquitania and Narbonensis, plus Upper and Lower Germany. Eventually, Britain and Spain would join in the revolt.

Postumus was extremely popular, and enjoyed outstanding success in defending and restoring the Rhine frontier from Frankish and Alemannic incursions. However, by 268 his popularity had waned, and the governor of Upper Germany, Laelianus, revolted. Laelianus' support seems to have rapidly withered however, and within just a few months, Postumus had defeated the usurper. Postumus' downfall came when he was murdered by his soldiers for refusing to allow them to pillage the city of Moguntiacum (Mainz), the headquarters of Laelianus.

To further strengthen his hold on power, Constantine claimed descent from Claudius Gothicus. Although there is no truth to this claim, it does illustrate the importance of propaganda for Roman society. Constantine, in his role as the 'pious' descendant, issued coins to 'commemorate' his beloved ancestor. The idea, of course, was that whenever Romans passed these base-metal coins in their everyday transactions, they would recollect the astounding successes of Roman arms against the Goths under Claudius, and thereby associate the good qualities of Claudius with Constantine.

In 324 civil war broke out between Constantine and Licinius. When they came to blows near Hadrianopolis, Licinius, whose army was numerically superior in both foot and cavalry, was defeated by Constantine and fell back on Byzantium. His position there was not secure, however, and he was soon cut off from his fleet. He retreated to Chalcedon, where he promoted his controller of ministries, Martinian, as his co-Augustus, and left him to prevent Constantine from crossing the strait. Martinian was unable to accomplish the task and was captured by Constantine's forces shortly thereafter. He was executed by orders of Constantine in 325 after having short respite under guard in Cappadocia.

Constantine I, as Caesar

Assembled over the last 5 years, the following 24 lots of folles of Constantine I as Caesar represent Part 1 of a small collection we will be selling over our next three sales. Assembled with an eye for quality, rarity or both, this collection is one of the broadest collections offered publicly in many years.

In general, the coins of Constantine I as Caesar are very scarce. Quality pieces are few and far between. The full size folles (approx. 10 grams) are decidedly rare as they were struck only for the first few months of Constantine's reign as Caesar. Several weight reductions soon followed. Coins are known from nearly all the mints in operation at the time with those from the western mints being more common (as these were under Constantine's command), while those of the eastern mints are rarer, with the Serdica mint being the rarest (see our December 1997 sale for a specimen from Serdica).

In the west, coins of Constantine as Caesar were struck from July of 306 until December of 307, while the east continued to strike coins for him as Caesar a little longer. One would expect there to be very few types or varieties struck in such a short span of time, but there are over 200 different varieties of folles of Constantine as Caesar, and another 30 or so silver and gold issues. Add to this all the political intrigue and military posturing going on during these critical years, the coinage of Constantine I makes for an interesting collecting theme.

In RIC VII, pg. 153, Dr. Bruun rejects Voetter's theory that this issue and the related issue of Licinius depicting the emperor on the back of an eagle was an unsuccessful attempt to reintroduce a silver coinage. He specifically states that these "coins do not differ in their metallic content from the other Victoria laetae coins, proved by the obverses of the Caesars to have been struck after 317." However, although this coin could simply have a silver wash, it appears to be a much finer quality of base-silver than is normally encountered.

The Ptolemaic cult of Serapis and Isis enjoyed great popularity throughout Hellenistic and Roman times, and indeed the Romans, like the Greeks and Persians before them, were fascinated by the culture and monuments of ancient Egypt. The Ptolemies and the Roman emperors were not content with just being the foreign rulers of this fascinating land, but they wanted to be viewed as Pharaohs and the legitimate successors of the Dynastic pharaohs. To this end, they portrayed themselves as Pharaohs to the native population and even brought back certain aspects of the Egyptian culture and religion to their own native countries and cities. The Egyptian concept of the Pharaoh as a god was appealing to the Roman emperors (the aging Julius Caesar was especially taken with this concept during his romance with Cleopatra). This particular little bronze was possibly issued during the time of Julian II in an attempt to revive the pagan religions and institutions as Christianity started to overshadow them in both importance and popularity.

Jovinus was a Gallo-Roman noble who, with the support of Burgundians, Alemanni and Franks, usurped power in Gaul during the autumn of 411. Virtually nothing is known of Jovinus' short reign, although it is apparent that he enjoyed substantial support as he controlled the three mints of Lyon, Trier and Arles. In 412, he proclaimed his brother Sebastian co-emperor, but before the end of the following year, they were both dead as a result of the treachery of the goth Athulfus.

Exceptional Majorian Æ

Majorian came from an illustrious Italian family and he was considered a possible successor to the throne after the death of Valentinian III in 455. With the deposition of Avitus in October 456, he and Ricimer were the de facto rulers of the West, until he was proclaimed emperor by the army on 1 April 457. Just as Avitus had not been accepted in Italy, Majorian was not accepted in Gaul, and he successfully led military campaigns in 458/9 to quell any threat of revolt from that quarter. He did not have such luck in Spain, however, as in 460/1 his two naval expeditions against Gaiseric met with disaster. In the meantime, he also had aroused the suspicions of Ricimer, and after his return to Rome on 2 August 461, he was seized, and five days later, he was beheaded.

All of Majorian's coinages are scarce, if not rare. The bronze issues were struck at Mediolanum (Milan), Ravenna and Rome, and the Milan issue is exceptional for the fact that the mint was not a moneta publica - this and an uncertain specimen of Nepos being the only bronze it is known to have issued. In the absence of the mint-mark, a situation which is frequently encountered on the fifth-century aes coinage due to the small flan size and crude workmanship, often one must depend totally on style for mint attribution. In the case of Majorian's Milan issue this becomes quite easy as the style is distinctive, most noticeably in the bulbous facial features, long neck and egg-shaped head.

2629. MARCIAN. 450-457 AD. AV Solidus (4.45 gm). Constantinople mint. Constantinople Mint Leo I and Leo II Solidus

Fair, light reverse smoothing. ($150)

2634. LEO I. 457-474 AD. AE 4 (0.79 gm). Constantinople mint(?). Diademed, draped and cuirassed bust right / RIC Greek monogram 5 within wreath. RIC X 720; LRBC 2270; MIRB 31a. Near EF for type. ($75)

Since, as is frequently the case, the mint-mark is illegible on this example, the attribution of this coin to the mint at Constantinople is based on the portrait style, and the fact that this obverse legend form has only been recorded in combination with this reverse monogram type.

A solidus with this obverse die was published in Peus Auktion 337, lot 651 as a coin of the Suevi of Spain. There is, however, nothing distinctly Suevic about the piece, and more importantly, if it were Suevic, it would be the only imitation of Arcadius struck in the west. All the western tribes, the Suevi and the Visigoths, struck coinage in name of the western emperor, Honorius, exclusively. These solidi must be attributed to an uncertain eastern Germanic or Balkan group until further information is found on them. The replacement of R's with B's (ABCADIVS) should allow a distinct category to be defined.

Although this coin has some stylistic affinities with imperial issues of Ravenna, there are a few irregularities — plain cross instead of P-cross, eight-pointed star instead of six, and an error in the mintmark. Probably a very close Ostrogothic or early Lombardic imitation from an Italian mint.

The powerful personality of Irene had always overshadowed that of her son Constantine, and only an army mutiny had prevented her from taking power as senior Augustus in 790. After a short period in exile, she returned to Constantinople, and began working at eliminating her enemies. By 797 she had discredited her son to the point that she could have him deposed, blinded and murdered with little outcry. Irene was deposed herself in 802 after attempting to arrange a marriage between herself and Charlemagne.

The military type is unsuited for the unwarlike Constantine, but the legend "O Lady, protect the pious Monomachos" certainly reflects the atmosphere of crisis during his reign, during which Constantine had to face several rebellions. The miliaresion is found in two sizes, of which this is the larger. A hoard found at Oxarve in Sweden consisted of 100 pieces, evenly divided between the two types. Since contemporary hoards of gold show similar divisions between the histamenon and tetarteron (meaning that payments were acceptable in both types as long as the percentages were equal), there must also have been a recognized difference between the two silver types.

The island of Sicily provided an anchor for the Byzantine presence in Italy, and provision for the military and civil authorities stationed there was a high priority for the government at Constantinople. During the reign of Heraclius, a series of countermarked folles was issued at Constantinople for shipment to Sicily with the apparent intent of stabilizing a difficult economic situation. Regular production of folles at Syracuse would only start under Constans II, and the mint continued in operation with relatively minor periods of inactivity until 878 when the city succumbed to Arab attack. Presented here is an opportunity to acquire a nice collection of most of the major types issued during the mint's operation.
